December 7, 2006 ♦ Asheboro, N.C. — Randolph Telephone released the first regional directory covering Randolph County and parts of six other counties this week. Also new to this January 2007 directory is a coupon section for local eateries, a valuable service for readers of the book.

“With more listings than any other local book, this is the resource to turn to when needing a phone number or business referral,” said Steve A. Cox, General Manager of Randolph Telephone. “As a locally owned and operated telephone company, we are confident our readers will find this to be the most reliable directory source.”

Randolph Telephone had previously published a book for its Liberty service area and a separate book for its cooperative service area. This January 2007 directory combines the two books into one and added several new listings to make it a regional resource.

Coupons featured include discounts for Bob’s Backyard Bar-B-Cue & Grill, Chick-Fil-A, Malissa’s Pizza and Subs, Quiznos Subs, and Wonderful Wings.

The light yellow book features artwork from two local high school graduates, who each earned scholarships from Randolph Telephone in its annual directory cover art scholarship program earlier this year.

Copies are being delivered by hand and by mail now.

Randolph Telephone is dedicated to providing the most advanced telecommunications solutions and world-class customer care to its customers. Locally owned and operated, Randolph Telephone is proud of its more than 50 years of serving our neighbors and communities in Randolph, Alamance, Chatham, Davidson, Guilford, Moore, and Montgomery Counties.
